Keep the other eye on Japan.

How those Mexican whiskers do bristle!

A guilty conscience never has to be told of its guilt.

Peace with honor, if we may, war to the hilt, if we must.

Are we taking a mild summer plunge, or a full Mexican bath.

If you say something when you talk you may be asked to talk again.

Here's to the boys on the border! May they all come back safe and sound.

That bad little Mexican boy needs a spanking—and he is likely to get it.

"One word always leads to another," whether it is in the bible or a family jar.

Soon, now, we will begin to learn more details of our state of unpreparedness.

Rushing through life is all right, but thinking twice before you start will save you a world of jolts.

Too much Carranza! Too much Mexico! Down with them both! Up with the flag, and keep it there!

An exchange shouts that "dollar beef is in sight," and here's hoping that editor is the biggest liar on earth.

The the public eye may be focused upon Mexico, the political campaign will furnish some choice sparks nevertheless.

They say that more married men than bachelors are fighting in England. Out of the frying pan into the fire?

Some men arise from the slums, make a few dollars, and then look down upon the source from which they sprung. Their heads just can't hold them.

Statistics estimate that the cost of the second year of the European war will be $33,000,000,000,000. Lord, how we'd like to have that wad.

Both Hughes and Wilson had ministers for fathers, which ought to be some recommendation for the next president, anyway.

President Wilson is a newlywed, and Mr. Hughes' wife selects his neckties for him, and between the two the suffragettes ought to take heart and buck up.

We once heard a preacher say that a rich man has a hard time crawling into heaven. But that isn't disturbing our blissful dreams.

We are informed that rubber was introduced into the United States in 1800. This, however, does not include that of the neck variety.

"War is hell," to quote a noted general. But we would rather have war with honor than to bask in the sunlight of peace at the price of our national soul.

Who will say now that a corporation has no patriotism or soul. Many of the large ones of the country are paying their National Guard employees their full salaries while they are on the border in Mexico.

How's This?

THE SPIRIT OF THEN AND NOW

When a war with Spain was declared in 1898 thousands of young men left their employment and went to the front in defense of their country. When the war was over these young soldiers returned home and in a majority of cases found their jobs filled by other people and themselves out of employment and without prospects for the future. Such was the reward of valor in 1898.

Today thousands of the principal business institutions of the country are announcing that all members of the National Guard who have responded to the president's call will not only find their jobs waiting for them on their return but will have their full salaries paid to their families during their absence. Such is the spirit of 1916.

A little reflection should convince the most skeptical that not all of the patriotism of this country flows in the veins of the man with a gun. The civilian has his duty to perform, and he, too, performs it as the man he is.

The one grasps his gun and goes out to fight the battles of his country, while the other supplies the sinews of war with which to fight.

It is a combination of valor and fidelity which in time should prove invincible. Let us hope that such it may be.

SWEEP OUT THE FILTH

When a house floor is covered with filth all decent and self-respecting people get a broom and commence to sweep.

Mexico is the house floor today and the United States is the man with the broom. It is time to sweep.

For five years anarchy has been prevailing in that country, and for five years each day has seen the prevailing conditions just a little worse than the day before. It has been a retrograde movement since the day President Diaz fled to France.

Today we are witnessing the assembling of a new army of nearly a hundred thousand men, called to the colors because the president deems it wise to sweep the dirty Mexican floor.

This movement of the troops to the Mexican border may be but the prelude to a general war with Mexico. If such it is to be, then the American army should not be withdrawn until every vestige of filth has been swept from the republic to our south and a land once fair shall have been made over into a place of habitation for rational human beings.

It is not a pleasant task to undertake, but it seems to be a burden placed upon the shoulders of the American people. It will be accomplished without fuss or feathers or bluster or blow—accomplished as the people perform their routine duties of life, for such is the American spirit.

The Stars and Stripes should be respected wherever and when they are unfurled. Let us see that it is so. Sweep out the filth.

SAYS JAPAN WILL NOT AID MEXICANS.

Tokio, June 23.—"Of course any claim that the Japanese Government will assist Mexico with munitions and arms is out of the question and absurd," said Baron Ishii, foreign minister, to a correspondent of the Associated Press, who asked today for his views on the Mexican situation. Declarations attributed to Mexicans were that assurances had been received from Japan that munitions and other assistance would be given to Mexico in event of war with the United States.

"As for private companies selling arms to Mexicans," the foreign minister continued, "I consider it extremely improbable. As you know, all available rifles and guns are being furnished to Japan's allies to assist in bringing the European war to a successful issue. And I fancy, though I do not know, that munitions not available for our allies have found their way to China during the revolutionary troubles."

"Let me say this with all the emphasis and earnestness at my command," said the minister, "the Japanese nation sincerely hopes that armed conflict between the United States and Mexico may be averted. Japan's interest in America, North, Central and South, being essentially pacific and commercial, any event bringing disturbances into the American market would be felt keenly in Japan. This is especially true at a moment when the whole European trade is virtually closed to Japan and the Chinese market is seriously upset."

EXPRESSES SURPRISE.

Baron Ishii expressed surprise when the correspondent referred to Gen Ramon Iturbe, representative of Gen Carranza, who was reported several weeks ago to be on his way to Japan on a secret mission.

The Baron declared he never had heard of Gen Iturbe or his projected visit. He explained that he regarded the Carranza Government as the defacto Government of Mexico, and that the usual relations with Gen Carranza were being maintained.

Japan's interests in Mexico, he said, were in charge of Secretary Ohta, from whom he had received no advices in regard to the present situation.

Col Manuel Romero, recently appointed minister to Japan by Gen Carranza, has reached this country, but has not had an audience with the Emperor. Any idea that the Japanese Government was interfering in the Mexican situation, he declared, was as absurd as the idea that munitions were being supplied.

GOV. MANNING CALLS FOR ONE THOUSAND MEN.

Urges Patriotic Men of South Carolina to the Colors to Bring Palmetto Regiments Up to War Strength.

Columbia, June 23.—A call to the patriotic white men of South Carolina to come to the colors so as to bring the South Carolina National Guard up to war strength was issued tonight by Richard I. Manning. There is urgent need for at least 1,000 more recruits for the two regiments to bring them up to the maximum number set by the war department for service in the field. There are about 2,500 men now under arms at Camp Moore, the State mobilization grounds at Styx, and the 1,000 additional men are wanted for the two regiments to place them on a war footing. The call was issued for recruits by the Governor after his return from the mobilization grounds, where he conferred with Col. Blythe and Springs and Capt. Manning, of the Light Dragons.

The Governor went over the camp thoroughly and talked with the officers regarding the health and comfort of the men. He was pleased with the situation and, while encouraged over the promptness with which the men have flocked to the colors since the call made by President Wilson for service in Mexico, he wants to emphasize the urgent need for the additional 1,000 recruits. He asks those interested in each community to get in touch with available recruits and to notify his secretary, Col. E. A. Roque, at his office in Columbia.

THE GOVERNOR'S CALL

The following is the call issued by the Governor for recruits:

The the People of South Carolina:

A crisis confronts us. The call for service has come. South Carolina is expected to do her part. Our men are responding nobly. About 2,500 are now in camp. We need at least 1,000 additional men. I make this appeal to the patriotism and loyalty of the men of South Carolina to offer their services without delay. The matter is urgent. Recruits are needed at once. I request those in each community who are interested in seeing South Carolina furnish her full war quota of troops to take the lead in securing available recruits for the two South Carolina regiments, and urge that they communicate with Col. O. K. Laroque at the Governor's office in Columbia at once. Recruiting officers will be sent to any communities that indicate a response to this appeal. I am confident that the patriotism of our people will bring a prompt response.

Richard I. Manning, Governor.

NEGROES—IN WAR AND ON ROADS.

The death of negro troopers in Mexico recalls the fact that however noisy and objectionable negro soldiers are in time of peace, they are reputed to serve their country well on the field. Their action in resisting stampe under the fire of a Mexican machine gun shows that these men uphold the traditions of the army.

It is recalled that negro soldiers did good fighting in Cuba. Wasn't it at El Caney that the 71st New York laid down and the negro regulars ran over them and drove the Spaniards from the trenches? And it has been charged that Roosevelt's Rough Riders got at San Juan Hill the glory that should have gone to the negroes.

We think that in case of war requiring a large number of men, a regiment of negroes should be sent from this State. The only trouble about that would be that the men who would be taken, as in the case with the whites, would be men of value, industrious and useful, while the vagabonds, loafers and vicious would be left at home.

The government could use negro soldiers from South Carolina and could so place them as not to be offensive to other bodies of troops.

But the problem at present is to find some way to dispose of the loafers around our villages, towns and cities. When we see so many miles of roadway in South Carolina needing improvement and then think of the negro idlers around pool rooms and other low dives, we think instinctively of what a beautiful relationship each might bear to the other and how lovely our roads could be made with the labor of vagrants that live upon the extravagance and waste of Southern people.—Columbia Record.

ARMY BILL PASSED BY UNANIMOUS VOTE

Washington, June 23.—The House passed the army appropriation bill today by a unanimous vote after it had increased the bill to $180,000,000 through the addition of $26,000,000 for many separate items. While it was sifting amendments the House appropriations committee agreed on a $25,000,000 deficiency bill to provide funds for calling the national guard into federal 000,000 for the national guard, a new provision.

Armored motor cars, $150,000 to $300,000.

The House decreased some items, particularly appropriations for the national guards, whose supplies after federalization will be obtained through army appropriations.

Representative Parker, of New Jersey, made an unsuccessful fight for an appropriation of 20,000,000 for small arms.
